

Broadcast ownership should be limited. What makes America great and strong is including of many thoughts and points of view. This act makes America weak. The only people who will benefit are the owners of these companies to the detriment of a great nation.